SECOND ANNIVERSARY WEEK ENTERTAINMENT

Held at Christ Church with Rev. P. S. Irwin of Pomfret as the Preacher.

At Christ church Wednesday evening the second of the Lenten mid-week services was held with the rector, Rev. Nelson Poe Carey, conducting the service, assisted by Rev. P. S.
Irwin of Christ church, Pomfret, who was also the preacher. His seasonable discourse, urging a closer and more faithful following of the Christian doctrines, was from the text Revelations xiv. 4: These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.

Mentioning the quite prevalent estimate of the small number of those to be saved in comparison with those who are found in the world, the preacher led to destruction, yet said the preacher, it will be no unworthy number that will swell the final triumph of the Lamb.

The apostle saw a great multitude which no man could number, who were the ultimate glory of Christ's victory. But of these referred to in the text, what is their general characteristic? What special feat places them standing close around the Lamb?

The text answers they follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.

In the minds of many there is a very general belief in religious truth, but how few there are that have any deep and convincing thoughts upon the great doctrines of the church. They believe in the certain plain virtues of religion, but these other points they say may well occupy minds of the clergy, but are not for us. They base their belief upon the certain historical facts of the gospel, but think little upon the doctrines founded upon these facts by the apostles. To these the text cannot apply, they follow the leading of the Lamb only to a certain point. They follow the Lamb only to a certain point. They follow the Lamb only to a certain point.
